Hindu Temple, Cincinnati Devdham of North America

Historical Highlights of Hindu Society of Greater Cincinnati

"Happy 10th Anniversary of New Temple." We are celebrating the 10th anniversary of our new temple and not that of HSGC. The history of HSGC goes back long way. Here it is. By the years 1970s the students and business people who had come to the USA some ten or twenty years before had achieved their many goals and had settled down with their families. Then there was a 'moment' of vacuum in their life. They missed their culture and religion though they were mentally nourishing it. Then one day they decided to rekindle it in their lives. This idea spread across the USA in the then small Indian communities including the one in Cincinnati, Ohio. In 1970s families organized Poojas and gathering in their houses. In Cincinnati such concept was generated on the Basant Panchami day of 1978 and first Pooja was organized in March 1978. As community grew larger the Poojas and festivities were moved to the larger basement of First National Bank (now Firststar Bank). The devotees formulated themselves as a religious organization under the name of Hindu Society of Greater Cincinnati. The emblem was conceived, the first constitution was adopted in March 1979 and HSGC was registered in the state of Ohio on April 17, 1980. The first election was held on June 15, 1980.

The IRS tax exemption status was obtained in March 1981. On September 16th, 1982 an old house on Martin Luther King Drive was bought, renovated to be used as a temple and fully paid by the community. The inaugural Pooja of the Lord ShriRadh-Krishna was performed on January 23, 1983. The first resident priest was appointed in August 1985.

On Sept. 17, 1986, approximately 100 acres of land (present site) was purchased and Bhumi Poojan was performed on Oct.12, 1986. On May 14, 1988 new resident priest was appointed. The foundation stone of the New Temple building was laid on June 13, 1992. By 1993 the basement was finished, the temple was formally inaugurated on Nov.18 and 19, 1995 and deities from the old temple were ceremoniously installed in the basement. On Nov. 9, 1996 received a limited occupancy grant for the lower floor and full occupancy was granted on May 6, 1997. On an auspicious days of May 22 through 26, 1997 the presently presiding deities except "AUM", were installed with the ceremony called Prana Pratistapana Mahotsav. The crystal "AUM" was unveiled on April 29, 2000, the beginning of the new millennium. Then HSGC celebrated every anniversary by creating a new landmark. In the beginning of year 2004 east and west wing expansion of the temple was undertaken. In May 2004 Kalash Sthapana ceremony, in July 2004 Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav of deities: Lord Jagannath, Lord Murugan and Lord Chitragupta were performed. Expansion of the temple was completed in 2005 and in May 2005 Pran Pratishtha Mahotsav of NavaGrah was performed. At the same time the Donation Wall was being erected and was completed in 2005. Currently more landmarks such as Garbhagriha (Sanctorum) for each deity and Cultural Center are being planned. There are proposals for a library, of special programs for seniors and organizing awareness of true Hinduism among community members as well as for the community at large. The HSGC publishes monthly news letter Aradhana, maintains a website and maintains a gift shop in the temple.

MOST RECENT GREAT NEWS FOR FUTURE DEVELOPMENTS OF TEMPLE

Road Construction Started for the CULTURAL CENTER

We have been planning to carry out our dream of building a Cultural Center for our community. The first step in accomplishing our goal is to build a new road from the Barg Salt Run road. Eventually, the new road as seen in the picture, will be our main entrance to the temple. Building this road will meet the zoning requirements, thus allowing us to receive the permits for future projects. Your generous donations have brought us up to this point, but we need your continuous support to complete this project.

HOMAM (YAGYA)

By: Meena Mehta

The word Homam (Homa, Havan, Yagna, Yajna, Yagya) means sacrifice, the spirit of sacrifice.

The Yagya (Sanskrit word) was one of the most popular forms of religious ritual in the Vedic times, about ten thousands years ago. It was performed at an individual, family or community level. The devotees gathered together in a spirit of dedication, to invoke the grace of the presiding deity to receive the blessing for individual or family goals such as: health, wealth, fame, success, strength, prosperity, longevity, and progeny. When performed in a spirit of selfless effort toward the common goals such as for the blessing of the Mother Nature, for the general welfare and prosperity of all in the community and for peace in the world.

The Yagya ritual is centered around the fire-trough. It starts by invoking Agni (god of fire) in the fire-trough. While chanting Vedic Mantras the gathered devotees offer mixture of nine grains, Ghee and special woodchips into the fire. These offerings in Sanskrit are called 'Dravya' which means wealth or money. Hundreds of Mantras are chanted continuously for several hours. At the conclusion of the ritual special prayers and Aarati are performed, devotees receive blessings from and through priests and attain their goals.

In NavChandi Yagya (Homam) the presiding deity is Goddess NavDurga (NavChandi) who is empowered with nine forms of power. Nine means Nav and power means Shakti So, She is also known as NavShakti and MahaShakti.

The NavChandi Yagya is a very unique sacrificial rite involving powerful Saptasati Mantras. The 700 Saptasati Mantras are spreaded across the 13 chapters of the Markandeya Purana. These chapters are divided into three parts. The 1st chapter is devoted to Goddess Durga, 2nd, 3rd and 4th chapters extol the greatness of Goddess MahaLakshmi. The remaining chapters are devoted to Sarasvati, the Goddess of Learning.

By performing the NavChandi Yagya the sufferings that are caused by hostile elements are eradicated. The sufferings resulted from poisons, sorceries, thieves etc. are also removed.

By performing the Yagya five times, adverse planetary influences are removed. The performance of this homam seven times removes all fears. Performance for eleven times promotes royal, the highest influence and sixteen times begets progeny.

The Tantric texts Marichi Kalpa Vaarahi tantra and Chidambara Rahasyam state the following as benefits of ChandiYagya: attainment of health, wealth, prosperity, longevity, food, wealth, progeny, fame, success, strength etc, removal of fear, ailments, danger, defeat in the hand of adversaries and more.

Yagyas are beneficial to the performer in various ways. During the Yagya, the smoke emanating from the holy fire purifies the environment and is beneficial to those who inhale it. Chants of the mantras by the priests fill the place with its soothing sound and strong vibrations of positive energy.

As the centuries rolled by the Yagyas became only an occasional form of ritual and gradually its significance became veiled. At that stage Shri Ved Vyasa revolutionized the concept of the ritual in the Bhagavat Geeta as follows: Yogeshvar Shri Krishna said that the world is bound by actions other than those performed in the spirit of Yagya; therefore perform actions for Yagya alone. This interprets that Yagya does not mean an occasional ritual of worship but the continuous attitude of dedication, self-sacrifice and worship in all of life's activities.

In the modern world of science and technology the intellects demand the logic and reasons behind rituals prescribed in the Veda and scriptures. So for the modern era the new interpretation or definition and the significance of Yagya is the symbolic burning of one's ignorance in the fire of knowledge given and explained by the Guru from the sacred scriptures of Hindu (Sanatan) religion.

But during the last fifty years there is a new awareness and its evolution of learning and understanding the Hindu religion and its philosophy as well as performing and practicing the Vedic principals and rituals. We, the Hindu Society of Greater Cincinnati is going to just do that. On the occasion of the 10th Anniversary the Hindu Society of Greater Cincinnati is going to perform three day NAVCHANDI HOMAM on May 18th, 19th and 20th 2007 for the welfare of our community and peace in the world. Please come and join us.
