RETIREMENT HOMES PROGRESS

We the committee members are happy to inform that we are making good progress to make this project a reality. At this stage we are quite confident. Last few months we have been working very hard but we need more time before we could present to the community a solid project. We are trying to get the Zoning Permit for a Planned Development (PUD). It has certain requirements which we are trying to meet.

At this stage we have met the first big requirement of having another access from our property to the county road.

Our new road fulfilled this important zoning requirement.

Second requirement, is to submit a planned drawing. For this we are trying to interview a couple of reputable engineering/architectural companies to submit their proposals.

Trying to develop with the help of our temple attorney, Mr. Steve Hunt, Esq. to develop the legal guidelines for acquiring these homes by our devotees.

At this planning stage (initial), our homes will be single story consist of two good size master bedrooms.

Kitchen cum family room, Puja room, storage room, two and half bath room. Two car garage and deck. We expect these houses will be approximately 1700 sq. ft. Approximate cost may be less than $200,000

A separate building consisting of kitchen with dining facility and Wellness Center.

All landscaping etc. will be maintained by our corporation.

YOUR SUGGESTIONS WILL REALLY SHAPE THIS PROJECT.

We hope to get your suggestions.

Hindu Women Network Meeting

OUR MISSION : To empower Hindu women in USA at the local and national level, by fostering Sewa (service), Soham (personal and spiritual development) and Sadhana (Samskaras - values) in the family and in the society following the great traditions of Hindu Dharma as well as its achievements of the modern world.

The Hindu Women Network started in Cincinnati 3 years. We have been making progress slowly but surely. This was our fifth program so far. Rita Singla welcomed all the women and started the meeting. Around 40 women attended this meeting. We presented life stories of two eminent Hindu women this time. One was presented by Vijaya Chaturvedi on the life of the Queen of Kashmir - Kota Rani as the inspiration from the past and Sangita Desai presented the life of Kiran Bedi as the modern day inspiration. Geetha Erasala showed us how modern day women balances the life with home, office and children activities.

We also honored a respectable elderly Hindu lady among us, Smt. Shakuntala Gupta. She is a symbol of Shakti, Seva and Sadhana. Even at age 92 she is a leading role model living in Cincinnati. Last but not least, Neelam Jaiswal showed us her art of presenting food in a style. And showed us the culinary art of cutting vegetables. As usual, Shobha Patel wrote a very nice poem. It has an ability to move mountains. I am sure all of you will enjoy it.

As Hindu women, we value Shakti, Seva and Sadhana
And appreciate attitude of samata and shubh-bhavana
Please join us in the mission of Hindu Women Network
You would recognize its purpose is while your worth

Daily struggle and stress are encountered by everyone
Practicing Shakti within can lift us; beyond and above
Each one of us are being born for very special purpose
Specific SEVA drive, we have, needs to be discovered

Life is a mystical journey, how we define it; is individual
Disciplined cultivation of Sadhana, will make it spiritual
We request your participation in HWN events every year
Come, learn and share True-Self-Worth from each other
