Hindu Women Network

OUR MISSION : To empower Hindu women in USA at the local and national level, by fostering Sewa (service), Shakti (inner strength for personal and spiritual development) and Sadhana (Samskaras - values) in the family and in the society following the great traditions of Hindu Dharma as well as its achievements of the modern world.

The Hindu Women Network started in Cincinnati 3 years ago and have been providing mini workshops that promote its mission of Sewa, Shakti and Sadhana for all women. On 8/20/16 our 6th mini workshop was held at Renu Gupta's backyard in West Chester, Ohio. Over 20 women participated and really enjoyed the program.

We started the program with introduction to the Isha Foundation by Kalpana Nattamai. The video talked about importance of yoga and participants got to practice some yoga and Nadi Shudhi. Brinda Subraminum, Art of Living teacher, facilitated Guided Meditation. Each participant shared their spiritual readings. Shobha Patel gave talk on Aham, Ahamkara and Ego, their similarities and differences. She also shared her poem "Let Go of Ego".

Our true nature is blissful Atman, the essence of Param Brahman Nirakar, Our false perception of self creates; Moh, Maya, Lobh, Krodh and Ahmakaar In this illusionary world, we often get imprisoned into the self-inflated EGO. Merciful God has graced us with Vivek Bhuddhi, aptitude and ability to know. How to break the bondage, drop of the burden of pretense and to recognize, Spirituality is about letting go of EGO and eradicating its layers of disguise. All we need is to bring that awareness alive, and awaken from sleep to realize. Then light the sacred fire for Yagna, just bring the overblown ego, for sacrifice.
